News From the Room:

Happy President's Day!! I hope you enjoyed a nice 3 day weekend! First of all, I would like to begin with letting all of you know that the students have now earned 100 compliments! I am so very proud of them!! We will be celebrating later this week. ☺

The students did a great job collecting research for their animal. We are now compiling it into a story and they will be typing it this week. We are going to invite you to come in for another Author's Tea where the students will share their research paper with you. It will be on March 1st at 8:30 in the morning. We hope you can join us!

Again, thank you to all who donated (and continue to donate) for our Class Store. The students had a blast picking from the choices! I have copied the incentive chart on the back so you can see what they can earn money for.

Please make sure to send back the form if you are interested in reading to our class on Friday, March 2nd for Dr. Seuss' Read All Day. We would love to have you come in and read a story!! Also, be sure to send in the paper if you are interested in the Book Swap! It sounds like fun! ☺ Please see more info on the blog.

Curriculum Corner:

Language Arts: In writing, we are finalizing our draft for the research paper. We will also review the "th" sound and words that it appears in.
